

PÉCS SUMMER SCHOOL 2024

July 3 - August 1, 2024 University of Pécs Hungary

The four-week program includes the following courses:

European Studies Summer Course

During the summer school, students will study the political, economic, cultural and social achievements and challenges of the European Union. They will expand their knowledge on topics such as migration, security, economic transitions, art history, gastronomy and folk traditions in Europe. Engaging social programs will also be organized for participants to provide a unique intercultural experience, including a Hungarian dance house, an Intercultural Evening and a wine tasting program.

Leadership Skills Summer Course

The aim of the course is for students to become familiar with the leadership skills necessary to become effective and meaningful leaders. The main topics covered in the course include understanding leadership, recognizing leadership traits, developing leadership skills, creating a vision, communicating effectively, managing time, handling conflict, and overcoming obstacles. Participants will assess their leadership traits and skills to improve their own leadership performance.
